

Unforgettable Lisbon Break

Validity: 2015

SUGGESTED ITINERARY :

Day 01

Origin/Lisbon

Arrival to Lisbon airport. Meet & Greet and departure from airport to the hotel with panoramic tour to discover the magic of Lisbon on an introductory tour that covers some of the city's highlights.

Dinner is in one of Lisbon's most ambitious restaurants. The Michelin starred restaurant Eleven located at the top of Eduardo VII Park. Eleven offers views across the city towards the river; the cutting-edge cuisine is served in a sophisticated and contemporary space. Enjoy one of Lisbon's most memorable gastronomic experiences.

Day 02

Meeting program at the hotel

Full day meeting program with 2 coffee breaks and lunch at the hotel.

Dinner at restaurant Aura, in the Praça do Comércio. Aura is classy and traditional with a retro kind of feel while offering superb service. After dinner enjoy the challenge - take a tour of Lisbon's famous bars.

Day 03

Lisbon's visit

Morning meeting program with 1 coffee break.

Lunch will be served on board a unique vessel so allowing delegates the opportunity to see Lisbon from a different perspective while in total comfort and refinement. Combine the beauty of a boat tour on the Tagus with the characteristics of an excellent Venue. Meet Lisbon like never before!

For closure we suggest a special dinner in an exclusive venue with a Portuguese animation evening. Dinner at Palácio Conde d'Óbidos, the 17th century palace set on the top of one of Lisbon's hills is famous, not only its cuisine, but also for the panel tiles exposed in the terrace and in the rooms. In 1993 the Palace was declared a Property of Public Interest because of its outstanding features and indisputable beauty.

As it is a special evening, departure from the hotel is with stylish old-timers of the 1930's and there is entertainment to liven the whole evening. A traditional Portuguese Tuna performance during reception and cocktail; a duo of Portuguese guitars during dinner and finally a Fado singer joins the guitarists to add post dinner enchantment.
