

“Have some Madeira, m’dear!”

Validity: 21.12.2016

SUGGESTED ITINERARY :

- Day 01 Origin/Madeira
Arrival to Madeira. Meet & greet by our local guide and departure from airport to the hotel.

Dinner will take place at the Hotel. The aperitif will be served at the 360º roof top bar, with amazing views over Funchal’s amphitheatre.
- Day 02 Fajã dos Padres – an island, within the island!
The property owes its name to the fact that it belonged to the priests of the Company of Jesus for more than 150 years. As inhabitants of Fajã dos Padres they left a remarkable legacy, in particular the introduction of the malmsey wine, a wine whose reputation expanded the borders of Portugal to become well known in England, in the United States and even in Russia. Nowadays it is possible to revive a little of this past inheritance, by visiting some of these small rebuilt houses, tasting the delicious malmsey wine in a visit to the old cellar, or walking in the old stone alleys through the cultivated pieces of land. A modern cable car takes you quick and comfortably down the 300mts of the huge cliff. We leave in the morning on board 4X4 vehicles and return to Funchal will be on board a modern catamaran.

Dinner at O Forte Restaurant, housed in a fortress dating back to late 16th, early 17th century, in the heart of Funchal’s Old Town. Weather permitting, it will take place outside in the terrace.
- Day 03 West Madeira, with a twist
Madeira is world renowned for its fortified wine, but did you know that there are already table wines being produced on the island? We invite you to come and discover exactly that on a private visit to Terras do Avô (grandfather’s lands) as a tribute to the man who started all for the Caldeira family, one of the most traditional ones in the North Coast. The family house commands a spectacular view over the coastal road and, while the owner tells you all about the wine, that you will of course taste/drink, you will enjoy amazing homemade tapas followed by a delicious lunch prepared by the family eldest, Sofia. No meal would be complete without coffee, or tea, accompanied by homemade liqueurs or aguardente (rum)!

For closure we suggest a special dinner in an exclusive venue, Blandy’s Wine Lodges, Funchal’s oldest wine cellars, starting with a guided tour and a wine tasting. To turn it even more special a private Fado performance will enhance the atmosphere during the evening.
- Day 04 Madeira/Origin
Transfer to Madeira Airport. It is time to say Adeus...
