

"Have some Madeira, my dear!"

Validity: 2016

SUGGESTED ITINERARY :

Day 01

Origin/Madeira

Arrival to Madeira airport. Meet & Greet and departure from airport to the hotel with and introductory tour of Funchal.

Dinner at O Forte Restaurant, housed in a fortress dating back to late 16th, early 17th century, in the heart of Funchal's Old Town.

Day 02

Funchal, old and new traditions

Visit Funchal's highlights like the city market where you will sample some of the tropical fruits that grow on the island, the Old Town and its painted doors and murals, take the cable car to Monte and come down hill on an exhilarating ride on board the famous toboggans. Lunch will be served in a restaurant in the lovely town of Câmara de Lobos, Madeira's main fishing port, Vila do Peixe. As its name indicates, its specialty is fish, catch of the day to be more precise. As you are by the sea, why not go on board a catamaran and do a cruise along the coast? The catamaran will pick us up directly from the town's pier.

Dinner at the Armazém do Sal Restaurant in a room just for the group. The restaurant is located at 'Rua da Alfândega' in Funchal, in a 200 year old building that once served as a salt warehouse. At the table, contemporary cuisine inspired in the traditional Portuguese gastronomy, where the regional influence is naturally present.

Day 03

West Madeira, with a twist

Madeira is world renowned for its fortified wine, but did you know that there are already table wines being produced on the island? We invite you to come and discover exactly that on a private visit to Terras do Avô (grandfather's lands) as a tribute to the man who started all for the Caldeira family, one of the most traditional ones on the North Coast. The family house commands a spectacular view over the coastal road and, while the owner tells you all about the wine, that you will of course taste/drink, you will enjoy amazing homemade tapas followed by a delicious lunch prepared by the family's eldest, Sofia. No meal would be complete without coffee, or tea, accompanied by the traditional liqueurs, Madeira wine and even aguardente!

For closure we suggest a special dinner in an exclusive venue, Blandy's Wine Lodges, Funchal's oldest wine cellars, starting with a guided tour and a wine tasting. To turn it even more special a private Fado performance will enhance the atmosphere during the evening.

Day 04
